

Supplementary Figure. A plot of the two unique molecules A (left) and B (right), with the atom-numbering scheme. Displacement ellipsoids are shown at the 50% probability level. The minor component of the disordered OH group in B is drawn with grey lines. The intermolecular hydrogen bonds are indicated by dashed lines.