

Reciprocal layers $0kl$ of the crystal of chlorpropamide at 2.91 GPa in a DAC. The splitting of reflections due to the pseudomerohedral twinning is visible.