

S5 Figure

S4 Figure Least squares means of the dry mass of eggs laid by females across 9 families. The effect of family was significant, and there was a significant effect of the forced flight treatment. Different colors represent different families.