Bilješke o autorima • Notes on Contributors

Dorja Anić obtained her Master's degree from the Faculty of Teacher Education, University of Zagreb. This issue of Libri & Liberi includes her second published book review. <anic.dorja19@gmail.com>

Vlatka Blagus (1977) teaches primary and secondary students at the “American International School of Zagreb”. She holds an MA in History and Croatian Language and Literature from the University of Zagreb, and is a PhD student of Glottodidactics. Since 1999 she has been teaching Croatian as a second and foreign language, Croatian culture, and literature. She taught for two years in Austrian high schools and for six years Croatian as a foreign language to adults and university students. Her research focuses on heritage language learners and inquiry approaches to language acquisition. <vlatka.blagus@aisz.hr>

Tea Bošković (1984) obtained her Master's degree from the Faculty of Teacher Education in Zagreb and is working as a teacher in “Antun Gustav Matoš Primary School” in Zagreb. Her academic interests include the use of literary works in the classroom. <babic.tea@gmail.com>

Ivana Cindrić, PhD, is Assistant Professor at the Faculty of Teacher Education, University of Zagreb. She teaches courses relating to teaching methodology, with a focus on assessment, teaching culture to young learners, creative teaching activities and content-based language teaching and learning. Her research interests lie in the areas of assessment, teaching English to young learners, and literature. <ivana.cindric@ufzg.hr>

Dr Penni Cotton is Senior Research Fellow at the National Centre for Research in Children's Literature, University of Roehampton, UK, where she is responsible for European research projects. She is Director of the European Picture Book Collection (EPBC <www.ncrcl.ac.uk/epbc>) and the European School Education Training course (ESET <www.ncrcl.ac.uk/eset>). She has worked on several other EC projects related to European children's literature and has published many articles on the subject. Her first book, Picture Books sans Frontières (2000), explains the rationale behind her work. <p.cotton@roehampton.ac.uk>

Soumi Dey is a PhD researcher at the University of Glasgow. She has an MPhil from the University of Hyderabad, India. Before commencing research in picturebooks, cognitive literary studies, play and language learning, she worked as an EFL teacher and corporate trainer in India and the UK. She speaks five languages and has a special interest in early years bi/multilingual immigrant learners. She won a bursary to represent the UK at the “2016 IBBY Congress” in Auckland, NZ, has presented at a number of international children's literature conferences, and writes regular book reviews for IBBYLink. <soumidey1@gmail.com>

Sabrina Fava is Associate Professor of Children's Literature at the Faculty of Education, Università Cattolica del Sacro Cuore of Milan. Her publications include the following books: Emilia Formigini Santamaria. Dagli studi storico-pedagogici alla letteratura per l'infanzia (2002); Percorsi critici di letteratura per l'infanzia tra le due guerre (2004); Dal “Corriere dei Piccoli” Giana Anguissola scrittrice per ragazzi (2009). Her book Piccoli lettori del Novecento. I bambini di Paola Carrara Lombroso sui giornali per ragazzi (2015) won the Siped Prize in 2016. She is on the international editorial board of the journal History of Education and Children's Literature. <sabrina.fava@unicatt.it>

Željka Flegar (1978), PhD, Assistant Professor at the University of Osijek, teaches courses and does research on children's literature, media and drama in English. Her research deals with the intricacies and deviations of English language and literary discourse, more recently in the context of the historical development of children's culture, as well as with her theory on the 'childlike language' of children's literature. She has published papers in Croatia and abroad and is the author of the interdisciplinary book Theatrical Improvisation, Language and Communication [Kazališna improvizacija, jezik i komunikacija] (2016). <zflegar@foozos.hr>

Dr. sc. Marina Gabelica (1981.) docentica je na Učiteljskome fakultetu Sveučilišta u Zagrebu gdje predaje kolegije iz dječje književnosti, medija i metodike Hrvatskoga jezika. Njezini su znanstveni interesi povezani sa suvremenom dječjom književnosti, lektirou, novim medijima i digitalnom književnosti. Objavila je više stručnih i znanstvenih radova u zemlji i inozemstvu, autorica je nekoliko čitanki i digitalnih udžbenika za niže razrede osnovne škole te je članica domaćega i regionalnoga povjerenstva za književne nagrade za djecu i mladež. <marina.gabelica@gmail.com>

Dr. sc. Katarina Ivon (1976.) docentica je na Odjelu za izobrazbu učitelja i odgojitelja Sveučilišta u Zadru gdje je nositeljica i izvoditeljica kolegija Temeljni pojmovi teorije književnosti, Hrvatska usmena književnost, Hrvatska književnost u dijaspori te suradnica na kolegijima iz dječje književnosti. Njezini primarni znanstveni interesi usmjereni su književnoj i kulturnoj teoriji, posebice književnoj imagologiji te hrvatskoj dječjoj književnosti. Aktivno je sudjelovala na brojnim domaćim i međunarodnim znanstvenim skupovima te je objavila veći broj radova u domaćim i inozemnim časopisima. <kivon@unizd.hr>

Corinna Jerkin (1986.) asistentica je na Učiteljskome fakultetu Sveučilišta u Zagrebu i doktorandica na uspostavnome istraživačkom projektu Hrvatske zaklade za znanost Uspostavljanje međukulturnih poveznica kroz prijevode dječje književnosti: tekst, kontekst, strategije (BIBRICH). Njezini znanstveni interesi obuhvaćaju dječju književnost, teoriju književnosti (posebice teoriju pripovijedi) i metodiku književnoga i jezičnoga odgoja i obrazovanja. <corinna.jerkin@yahoo.com>

Katarina Kokanović (1993) is a fifth-year student at the Faculty of Teacher Education, University of Zagreb. Besides being interested in children's literature and picturebooks, she is also interested in handicrafts. <kattarina0@gmail.com>

Dr. sc. Sanja Lovrić Kralj (1983.) docentica je na Učiteljskome fakultetu Sveučilišta u Zagrebu, Odsjek u Petrinji, gdje drži nastavu iz kolegija o dječjoj književnosti i medijskoj kulturi. Obranila je doktorski rad pod nazivom Paradigme tridesetih godina 20. st. u hrvatskoj dječjoj književnosti. Objavljuje radove iz povijesti hrvatske dječje književnosti. Tajnica je Hrvatske udruge istraživača dječje književnosti. <sanja.lovric@ufzg.hr>

Dr. sc. Berislav Majhut (1956.) redoviti je profesor na Učiteljskome fakultetu Sveučilišta u Zagrebu, Odsjek u Petrinji. Predaje kolegije iz dječje književnosti i medijske kulture. Njegovi su znanstveni interesi uglavnom povezani s povijesti hrvatske dječje književnosti, naratologijom i ilustracijom. Predsjednik je Hrvatske udruge istraživača dječje književnosti. <berislav.majhut@ufzg.hr>

Dr. sc. Lana Molvarec (1983.) diplomirala je kroatistiku i sociologiju na Filozofskome fakultetu u Zagrebu, gdje radi kao znanstvena novakinja – poslijedoktorandica na Odsjeku za kroatistiku. Doktorirala je 2014. radom Izmještanje i identitet u hrvatskoj prozi od krugovaške generacije do danas. Glavne su joj teme interesa kulture putovanja, teorije prostora i identiteta u suvremenoj hrvatskoj književnosti te dječja književnost. Objavila je niz znanstvenih i stručnih radova te je sudjelovala kao izlagačica na petnaestak međunarodnih i domaćih znanstvenih konferencija. <lmolvare@ffzg.hr>

Ivana Moritz (1976), PhD, Senior Assistant at the University of Osijek, Faculty of Education, teaches courses in English language and grammar. Her fields of academic interest include the interdisciplinarity of figurative language and cognitive science, particularly the cognitive grounding of euphemisms, as well as conceptual integration in language and mind. She has published a number of academic papers and attended academic events in Croatia and abroad. <imoritz@fozoz.hr>

Dina Alexandra Pavković (1991) graduated from the Faculty of Teacher Education in Zagreb in 2014. She currently works as a primary school teacher in “Ivan Meštrović Primary School” in Zagreb. Her interests include children’s literature and picturebooks and their uses with young learners. This issue of Libri & Liberi contains her third published book review. <alexandra.pavkovic@gmail.com>

Radoslav Rusňák (1978), PhD, is Assistant Professor in the Department of Communicative and Literary Education at the Faculty of Education, University of Prešov (Slovak Republic). His research interest focuses on the interpretation of artistic works and world literature for children and young people in didactic transformation for primary education. As an author or co-author, he has published several books, including the monograph The Modern Fairytale and its Children Perception (2008) and the textbook World Literature for Children and Youth in Didactic Communication (2009). <radoslav.rusnak@unipo.sk>

Sonja Schreiner (1976) Studium der Latinistik, Vergleichenden Literaturwissenschaft und Französisistik an der Universität Wien; seit 2001 Wissenschaftsreferentin im Institut für Klassische Philologie, Mittel- und Neulatein; 2003 Promotion zur Dr. phil.; Vortragstätigkeit u. Publikationen zu Übersetzungen volkssprachlicher Texte ins (Neu)lateinische (incl. Klassiker der KJL), zu Supplementdichtung, scherzhaften Heldengedichten, lateinischer Fachliteratur, Mensch-Tier-Beziehung in der Allgemeinliteratur & KJL und zu Instituts- und Wissenschaftsgeschichte (Schwerpunkt 20. Jh.); Beiträge zur Kinderuni Wien. <sonja.schreiner@univie.ac.at>

Ana Stilinović (1990) is a fifth-year student at the Faculty of Teacher Education, University of Zagreb. Her interests include children’s and young adult literature and teaching English. She is currently working on her thesis in the field of young adult literature. This issue of Libri & Liberi contains her first published book review. <ana.stila@gmail.com>

Dr. sc. Sanja Vrcić-Mataija (1972.) docentica je na Odjelu za nastavničke studije u Gospiću Sveučilišta u Zadru. Nositeljica je kolegija iz dječje književnosti, teorije književnosti, medijske i scenske kulture. Bavi se književnoteorijskim proučavanjem dječje književnosti s naglaskom na poetici suvremenoga hrvatskoga dječjega romana te kulturološkim osobitostima zavičajnosti u književnosti. Objavila je četrdesetak znanstvenih i stručnih radova u domaćim i inozemnim publikacijama. Suautorica je (s Vesnom Grahovac-Pražić) znanstvene monografije Tragom ličke zavičajnosti (2012.). <smataija@unizd.hr>

Yan Zheng is a PhD student at the University of Glasgow, investigating app storytelling for children. She was part of the creating team for the story app The Great Ghost Chase (Audois & Alleuil Editions). She is interested in interactivity studies, and how information/meaning is shaped and received by the audience (children in particular) from different media and textualities. She has an MPhil degree in children’s literature from the University of Cambridge, and is a member of IRSCL. <zheng.carry.yan@gmail.com>

Dr. sc. Dubravka Zima docentica je na Odjelu za kroatologiju na Hrvatskim studijima Sveučilišta u Zagrebu, gdje predaje kolegije iz dječje književnosti, novije hrvatske i svjetske književnosti. Objavila je knjige Ivana Brlić-Mažuranić (2001.), Kraći ljudi. Povijest dječjeg lika u hrvatskom dječjem romanu (2011.) i Uvod u dječju književnost (u suautorstvu s Marijanom Hameršak, 2015.). <dzima@hrstud.hr>