As of Fall 2016, the first half of the THOR data (including HI observations, OH lines, radio recombinations lines, along with some continuum data) are available for public download as fits files. There are plans for a cutout service to be added in the future. All the data can be accessed at this link:

http://www.mpia.de/thor/DATA/www/