Email solicitation:
Sent from blmresearch@umbc.edu

Dear [Name of department contact]

As part of our response to the current environment of civil unrest, and in support of Black Lives Matters, we are analyzing public response statements made by Political Science departments across the country.

We kindly ask that you take two minutes of your time to share your department's public statements on these events, by emailing us your department's statement or by filling out this google form [link].

Please note that no individual department will be identified in our analysis, but trends and patterns across departments will be reported out. Thank you in advance for your participation.

Sincerely,

Nadia Brown, Geogetown University
Fernando Tormos-Aponte, University of Maryland, Baltimore County
Janelle Wong, University of Maryland, College Park

Twitter Solicitation

#PoliSciTwitter: Please take 2 minutes to share your polisci/gvpt DEPARTMENT'S public statement in response to George Floyd's death and recent protests. Help us understand how our field is responding to these historic events! /insert tinyurl

#PoliSciTwitter: Let us know how your DEPARTMENT has responded to George Floyd's death and #BlackLivesMatter during this historic moment. We are trying to learn how our field is responding. /insert tinyurl