Ratanpuri injured in stone pelting

By Daily Excelsior - 27/11/2014

GN Ratanpuri with a fractured foot after being attacked by the people by stones in Renzipora village of district Pulwama on Wednesday.—Excelsior/ Younis Khaliq

Excelsior Correspondent

Srinagar, Nov 26: National Conference candidate from Pulwama and Member Parliament, Ghulam Nabi Wani alias Ratanpuri, was injured today when some youth pelted stones at his poll rally in Awantipora area in South Kashmir.

A police official said Ratanpuri was hit by stones when he was addressing an election rally at Awantipora.

The official said the MP suffered minor injuries on his legs and was taken to Bone and Joint Hospital Srinagar for treatment.

Ratanpuri is National Conference candidate from Pulwama Assembly constituency which is going to polls in the third phase of polls on December 9.

Daily Excelsior

http://www.dailyexcelsior.com/

The Leading Daily of Jammu and Kashmir , India