CLASHES AGAIN ERUPT AT NOWHATTA, GOJWARA

SYED YASIR. Dated: 2/13/2016 10:49:26 AM

SRINAGAR, Feb 12: Clashes again erupted between the protesters and forces at Nowhatta and Gojwara.

Police fired smoke shells. Reports said that clashes erupted between protesting youths and police and CRPF soon after the Friday prayers at Nowhatta. The youth tried to lead a protest demonstration towards the Nowhatta Chowk.

Policemen who usually remained deployed there asked them to end their protest as they would not be allowed to proceed. The protesters ignored their suggestion and tried to proceed. The forces swung into action by resorting to lathi charge and fired dozens of smoke shells. The protestors pelted stones towards them. The security forces also fired smoke shells towards the protesters with the intension to disperse them.

The action by security personnel managed to disperse the protesters. However, the protesters managed to pelted stones from narrow lanes giving a tough time to forces to control the situation.

Stone-pelting incidents were also reported from Saraf Kadal and Gojwara area of the city.

The stone-pelting clashes have become a routine at Nowhatta after Friday prayers since the last few months. As a result of stone pelting, traffic and other business activities were affected in the area.
