Cops injured in stone pelting

By Daily Excelsior - 05/05/2014

Excelsior Correspondent

RAJOURI, May 4: Four police personnel including three lady cops were injured in stone pelting at village Samote in Budhal.

As per reports, the villagers were protesting against road work under PMGSY in village Samote.

On getting information, police team rushed to the spot but the irate mob started pelting stones, which resulted into injuries to four police personnel including three woman constables.

The injured were hospitalized and their condition was stated to be stable, when last reports came in.

Police has registered a case in this regard.

Daily Excelsior

http://www.dailyexcelsior.com/

The Leading Daily of Jammu and Kashmir , India