Peoples Democratic Party (PDP) leader and RajyaSabha Member Parliament, Nazir Ahmad Laway, had a narrow escape when angry youth stoned his cavalcade and torched party vehicles in Bugam village of Kulgam district on Saturday.

Some people, mostly PDP supporters, received minor injuries in the incident as police and paramilitary CRPF had to resort to aerial firing and teargas shelling to bring the situation under control.

The incident took place when, Laway reached Government Higher Secondary School Bugam to chair a function.

Accompanied by senior education officials, Laway's cavalcade came under attack by angry youth as it reached near the school.

The youth were protesting against his visit.

Sources said Bugam youth had already warned the mainstream politicians against visiting the village.

"The cavalcade was approaching the school gates when local youth, in groups, started pelting stone at it," said a senior police official at Kulgam. The youth were shouting pro-freedom, anti-India, anti-PDP and pro-Pakistan slogans.

Superintendent of Police, Mumtaz Ahmad, said: "Four miscreants including the kingpin Muhammad ShafiWani were arrested for their involvement in the incident and a case has been registered against them."
