KT NEWS SERVICE. Dated: 12/8/2017 2:34:43 PM

SRINAGAR, Dec 7 : A shutdown was today observed in Hajin town of Bandipora district against atrocities allegedly by army yesterday. All shops and other business establishments are closed while traffic is off the roads.

Shops and other business establishments remained closed and transport was off the roads. The call for the shutdown was given by local trade bodies against the alleged atrocities by security forces yesterday.

Locals said the atrocitries were committed after security men came under stone pelting by a couple of youth. They alleged that security men went berserk and vandalised residential houses and set afire dozens of stacks of dried grass.

The army action led to clashes between protestors and security forces later.

In his version defense spokesman Col. Rajesh Kalia said army men were passing through Hajin when it came under heavy stone-pelting by a mob.

"The Patrol Party Commander cautioned the crowd not to indulge in stone-pelting. However, the mob continued to target the patrol, injuring three soldiers. After giving a final warning, a few rounds were fired in air to disperse the mob and the Patrol Party moved to its destination," he claimed.

Meanwhile, security forces today launched a cordon-and-search-operation in several villages of Anantnag district.

Reports said searches were carried out in several villages of Dialgam, including Kamad and Laalan.
