Narrow escape for BJYM chief, PSO injured in stone pelting

By Daily Excelsior - 09/12/2016

Excelsior Correspondent

SRINAGAR, Dec 8: Dr Suresh Ajay Magotra, State president BJYM on the way to Jammu after attending programs of BJYM at Srinagar today accompanied with Er Aijaz Hussain State vice president BJYM, J&K were targeted at Vesso area of Qazigund near about 6:30 pm by stone pelters where they escaped narrowly and their vehicle was partially damaged. The Personal Security Officer of Dr Mangotra namely Devraj was injured in the attack. A FIR in this regard has been logged at Qazigund Police Station.

Dr Mangotra who was on tour of Valley and launched a signature campaign at Srinagar in support of demonetization was returning to Jammu along with his vice president. He visited various places of Kashmir during his campaign and spread the message of the Party and various public welfare programmes launched by Prime Minister Narendra Modi for the youth.

Daily Excelsior

http://www.dailyexcelsior.com/

The Leading Daily of Jammu and Kashmir , India