STONES PELTED ON MUFTI'S CAVALCADE IN SHOPIAN

KT NEWS SERVICE. Dated: 4/10/2014 11:56:51 PM

It was a minor incident: Police

SRINAGAR, Apr 10: Stones were pelted on the cavalcade of Mufti Mohammad Sayeed, patron Peoples Democratic Party (PDP) at Neemander village in Shopian district, 50 kilometers from here today.

Reports said the former chief minister Mufti was leading a road show and after reaching Meemander, some angry youth came out and raised anti-India and pro-freedom slogans besides pelting stones on some security vehicles in Mufti's cavalcade. Locals said half a dozen vehicles including the jammer comprising Mufti's cavalcade were damaged during the stone pelting incident.

Reports added that the district administration had permitted the PDP patron to lead his rallies at six identified places in the district but on the insistence of the party activists, Mufti led the rally at 11 locations. "It was the 11th location (Neemander) where some youth came out and started pelting stones on security vehicles. The cavalcade had also adopted a different route other than the permitted one," official said.

Reports said police had to fire tear smoke shells to disperse the mob at Neemander and Bon Bazar till the security vehicles adopted another route via main town to take the PDP patron out from the place of occurrence.

Locals said last evening some unknown men had used mosque loud speakers appealing people to observe a complete strike in the town on Thursday. The strike affected the normal life in the morning. "The entire market was open after few hours of strike," a local said.

When contacted SP Shopian, Showkat Ahmad said, "It was a minor incident. Few stones were pelted on some security vehicles at Neemander. Jammer was not damaged. There was no aerial firing. But the situation is under control." When asked about the strike, the SP Shopian said the town observed strike but only for few hours in the morning.
