Miscreants held for stone-pelting

By Daily Excelsior - 08/02/2017

Excelsior Correspondent

Srinagar, Feb 7: Police today said it have arrested miscreants who pelted stones on vehicles at Baramulla town last week.

“In the evening of February 4 (Saturday) a group of miscreants boarding three vehicles appeared in Baramulla market near Karripa Park and started pelting stones on vehicles and created law and order problem,” a police spokesman said.

He said all these miscreants were detained and a case under FIR number 09/2017 was registered in Police Station Baramulla. “These miscreants were remanded to police custody by court of law. Further investigation in this matter is going on,” the spokesman added.

Daily Excelsior

http://www.dailyexcelsior.com/

The Leading Daily of Jammu and Kashmir , India