Protests, clashes in Polytechnic College

SRINAGAR, Apr 29: Protest demonstration was today held by students of government polytechnic college at Gogji Bagh here against the civilians' killings by security forces.

The protests led to clashes and students alleged that they were thrashed by the security men and parked vehicles in the college premises damaged. Stone pelting also occurred during the clashes.

Reports said the students assembled in the college premises and held protest demonstrations against the recent killings.

The students alleged that as they were holding peaceful protest, the security men beat them. According to them the security personnel broke open the college gate and thrashed the teachers and students. They even damaged the cars parked there. "An injured teacher had to be admitted in a hospital," a student said.

Police said students resorted to stone pelting. "They hurled stones on cops and their vehicles," an official said.

Almost all separatist leaders including Syed Ali Shah Geelani, Mirwaiz Umar Farooq and Mohammad Yasin Malik have strongly condemned the beating of students and teachers by CRPF.
