District status demand: Protesters pelt stones in Nowshera, cop injured

Several foundation, inauguration plates damaged | Sunderbani, Kalakote to continue agitation

Soon after the Bhartiya Janta Party leaders, including Health Minister Bali Bhagat and Ajay Nanda, addressed a press conference announcing the government's proposed decision of opening up an Additional Deputy Commissioner office on rotational basis in Nowshera and Sunderbani and attaching Kalakote with the ADC post of Koteranka, tempers flared in all the areas and the protesters in Nowshera resorted to pelting stones at Sub-Divisional Magistrate Office, injuring a policeman in the process.

The agitated people, especially youth, also damaged several foundation plates and inauguration plates with names of BJP leaders on it. "Strong protests were held against the BJP leadership, including local BJP MLA Ravinder Raina, and half a dozen plates with names of MLA and one having the name of Deputy Chief Minister were damaged," reports revealed.

Till last reports came in, the protests were going on in Nowshera. "Police rushed to the spot after some youth started to pelt stones at the SDM Office. During the incident, Constable Khaliq Hussain sustained injuries, while the window panes and gate of SDM Office got damaged," sources said.

In their press statement, people from Nowshera have declined to accept the proposed government decision.

Meanwhile, people from Sunderbani decided to continue their agitation until the government issues a formal order over the ADC post decision, with its headquarter at a central place between Nowshera and Sunderbani. "Our protest will continue until the government issues a formal order," said a local leader.

Reportedly, a meeting of traders from Sunderbani and civil society members was also convened, wherein the decision to continue the agitation was taken.

Similarly, the BJP press conference in Jammu spread fuel to the fire in Kalakote, with local traders and civil society members announcing to hold a major protest rally. "The government has proposed to attach Kalakote with Koteranka ADC office on a rotational basis. This is not acceptable," locals said.

They also castigated local legislators for playing with the facts and said that the government is playing with fire and a major protest rally will be staged on Friday.

As per reports, the administration has deployed forces in Nowshera, Sunderbani and Kalakote to maintain law and order.
