SHUT DOWN AT QAZIGUND AGAINST ARRESTS

SHABIR AHMAD. Dated: 7/26/2013 11:59:40 PM

SRINAGAR, July 26: A complete shutdown was observed in Qazigund township of south Kashmir toady against the continuous detention of youth who were arrested by the police last week.

At least 18 youth from different villages of the area were arrested by the police during overnight raids allegedly on charges of stone pelting and protests against the killing of four civilians in Gool area of Ramban district on 18th of this month. All the arrested youth continue to be under detention since then.

Reports said that groups of youth assembled in main market Qazigund this morning and resorted to stone pelting at private and passenger vehicles enforcing the shutdown. All the shops, other business establishments, private offices and private educational institutions remained closed in the highway town. Several vehicles were damaged in stone throwing by the youth. The stone pelting on vehicles affected the vehicular movement on the highway.

After the incidents of stone pelting the authorities deployed huge contingents of police and Para-military CRPF men in the entire township.

The youth were demanding the release of all the youth facing detention for last one week. “The youth should be released sooner than later. They just protested against the killings of innocent civilians and sacrilege of Quran. Putting them behind bars is totally unjustified,” a local told Kashmir Times over phone.
