District status demand: Cop injured in Kalakote stone pelting, highway blocked in Nowshera

Amid ongoing agitation for district status demand as well as for Additional Deputy Commissioner posts, some people resorted to pelting stones on the police at Dali in Kalakote, injuring a policeman on Friday, while the Jammu-Poonch highway was blocked for over three hours in Nowshera and a bandh was observed in Sunderbani.

On the other hand, Nowshera people staged another major protest and kept the Jammu-Poonch highway blocked for more than 3 hours.

Amid ongoing agitation for district status demand as well as for Additional Deputy Commissioner posts, some people resorted to pelting stones on the police at Dali in Kalakote, injuring a policeman on Friday, while the Jammu-Poonch highway was blocked for over three hours in Nowshera and a bandh was observed in Sunderbani.

As per reports, a major protest was staged in Kalakote and all business establishments remained shut. A protest rally was also taken out in the main market, in which the protesters raised anti-government slogans and showed their resentment against the government's proposed decision to attach Kalakote with ADC Koteranka.

"We will not accept this decision and we demand a separate district for the area and an ADC post at Kalakote," locals said during their protest. Meanwhile, tension hit the area when some people resorted to stone pelting on the police at Dali.

"During the bandh and protest rally in Kalakote, some people from Dali village blocked the Rajouri-Kalakote road and a police team, led by SHO Kalakote Darshan Singh, rushed to the spot and tried to pacify the situation. Some locals, including women, entered into a scuffle with the cops and started to pelt stones," police sources said, adding that the police team had to use force to disperse the mob and bring situation under control. A case in this regard has also been lodged.

On the other hand, Nowshera people staged another major protest and kept the Jammu-Poonch highway blocked for more than 3 hours.
