CONCLUSION:

Remarks of The Chief Justice regarding the end of the Term 737

SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

Present: Chief Justice Roberts, Justice Thomas, Justice Breyer, Justice Alito, Justice Sotomayor, Justice Kagan, Justice Gorsuch, and Justice Kavanaugh.

The Chief Justice said:

"I have the honor to announce, on behalf of the Court, that the October 2019 Term of the Supreme Court of the United States is now closed, and the October 2020 Term is now convened.

"Today's orders of the Court have been duly entered and certified, and filed with the Clerk.

"I note that memorial drapery has been erected on the door of our courtroom and on the Bench to signify mourning for Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg, who died on September 18, 2020. Justice Ginsburg was born in Brooklyn, New York, March 15, 1933. She received her B. A. from Cornell University and married Martin D. Ginsburg shortly after graduation. They briefly lived in Oklahoma, where Marty was stationed when called to active duty in the Army. They both pursued a career in law. She attended Harvard Law School and received her LL.B. from Columbia Law School in 1959, tied for first in her class.

"Justice Ginsburg served as a law clerk to the Honorable Edmund L. Palmieri, Judge of the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, from 1959 to 1961. From 1961 to 1963, she was a research associate and then associate director of the Columbia Law School Project on International Procedure.

"Justice Ginsburg was a professor of law at Rutgers University School of Law from 1963 to 1972, and Columbia Law School from 1972 to 1980. In 1971, she was instrumental in launching the Women's Rights Project of the American Civil Liberties Union. She argued six significant gender discrimination cases in this Court, winning five.

"President Carter appointed Justice Ginsburg to the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit, and she served there as a Circuit Judge from 1980 to 1993. President Clinton appointed her to this Court in 1993. She was the second woman appointed to the Court and served more than 27 years. During her time on the Court, she authored 483 majority, concurring, and dissenting opinions.

"Justice Ginsburg's contributions as advocate, jurist, and citizen are immeasurable. We at the Court will remember her as a dear friend and treasured colleague.

"Justice Ginsburg is survived by her two children: Jane Carol Ginsburg and James Steven Ginsburg; four grandchildren; two step-grandchildren; and one great-grandchild. We extend our condolences to her children, extended family, and countless admirers.

"At an appropriate time, the traditional memorial service of the Court and Bar will be held in our Courtroom.

"We now turn to the business of the Court."

Order in Pending Case

No. 20A55. Marci Andino, et al., Applicants v. Kylon Middleton, et al. Should the petition for writ of certiorari be denied, this stay shall terminate automatically. In the event the petition for writ of certiorari is granted, the stay shall terminate upon the sending down of the judgment of this Court.

The order is stayed except to the extent that any ballots cast before this stay issues and received within two days of this order may not be rejected for failing to comply with the witness requirement.

Justice Thomas, Justice Alito, and Justice Gorsuch would grant the application in full.

Order in Pending Case

No. 20A34. Food and Drug Administration, et al. v. American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists, et al. The Government seeks a stay of an injunction preventing the Food and Drug Administration from enforcing in-person dispensation requirements for the drug mifepristone during the pendency of the public health emergency. The Government argues that, at a minimum, the injunction is overly broad in scope, given that it applies nationwide and for an indefinite duration regardless of the improving conditions in any individual State. Without indicating this Court's views on the merits of the District Court's order or injunction, a more comprehensive record would aid this Court's review. The Court will therefore hold the Government's application in abeyance to permit the District Court to promptly consider a motion by the Government to dissolve, modify, or stay the injunction, including on the ground that relevant circumstances have changed. See Febre v. United States, 396 U. S. 1225, 1225–1226 (1969) (Harlan, J., in chambers); see also Parr v. United States, 351 U. S. 513, 520 (1956). The District Court should rule within 40 days of receiving the Government's submission.

Justice Alito, with whom Justice Thomas joins, dissenting.

Order in Pending Case

No. 155, Original. Texas, Plaintiff v. Pennsylvania, et al. The State of Texas's motion for leave to file a bill of complaint is denied for lack of standing under Article III of the Constitution. Texas has not demonstrated a judicially cognizable interest in the manner in which another State conducts its elections. All other pending motions are dismissed as moot.

Statement of Justice Alito, with whom Justice Thomas joins: In my view, we do not have discretion to deny the filing of a bill of complaint in a case that falls within our original jurisdiction. See Arizona v. California, 589 U. S. —— (Feb. 24, 2020) (Thomas, J., dissenting). I would therefore grant the motion to file the bill of complaint but would not grant other relief, and I express no view on any other issue.

Certiorari—Summary Dispositions

No. 19–8695. Ruben Gutierrez, Petitioner v. Luis V. Saenz, et al. The motion of petitioner for leave to proceed in forma pauperis and the petition for writ of certiorari are granted. The June 12, 2020 order of the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit granting the motion to vacate the stay of execution previously issued by the United States District Court for the Southern District of Texas is vacated. The case is remanded to the Court of Appeals with instructions to remand the case to the District Court for further and prompt consideration of the merits of petitioner's underlying claims regarding the presence of a spiritual advisor in the execution chamber in light of the District Court's November 24, 2020 findings of fact. Although this Court's stay of execution shall terminate upon the sending down of the judgment of this Court, the disposition of the petition for a writ of certiorari is without prejudice to a renewed application regarding a stay of execution should petitioner's execution be rescheduled before resolution of his claims regarding the presence of a spiritual advisor in the execution chamber.

Order in Pending Case

No. 20A136 (20–746). South Bay United Pentecostal Church, et al., Applicants v. Gavin Newsom, Governor of California, et al. Application for injunctive relief presented to Justice Kagan and by her referred to the Court is granted in part. Respondents are enjoined from enforcing the Blueprint's Tier 1 prohibition on indoor worship services against the applicants pending disposition of the petition for writ of certiorari. Application denied with respect to the percentage capacity limitations, and respondents are not enjoined from imposing a 25% capacity limitation on indoor worship services in Tier 1. Application denied with respect to the prohibition on singing and chanting during indoor services. This order is without prejudice to the applicants presenting new evidence to the District Court that the State is not applying the percentage capacity limitations or the prohibition on singing and chanting in a generally applicable manner. Should the petition for writ of certiorari be denied, this order shall terminate automatically. In the event the petition for writ of certiorari is granted, the order shall terminate upon the sending down of the judgment of this Court.

Justice Thomas and Justice Gorsuch would grant the application in full.

Justice Alito would grant the application with respect to all of the capacity restrictions on indoor worship services and the prohibition against indoor singing and chanting, and would stay for 30 days an injunction against the percentage attendance caps and the prohibition against indoor singing and chanting. Justice Alito would have the stay lift in 30 days unless the State demonstrates clearly that nothing short of those measures will reduce the community spread of COVID–19 at indoor religious gatherings to the same extent as do the restrictions the State enforces with respect to other activities it classifies as essential.

Chief Justice Roberts, concurring in the partial grant of application for injunctive relief.

Justice Barrett, with whom Justice Kavanaugh joins, concurring in the partial grant of application for injunctive relief.

Order in Pending Case

No. 20A138. Gateway City Church, et al., Applicants v. Gavin Newsom, Governor of California, et al. Application for injunctive relief presented to Justice Kagan and by her referred to the Court granted pending disposition of the appeal in the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit and disposition of the petition for writ of certiorari, if such writ is timely sought. The Ninth Circuit's failure to grant relief was erroneous. This outcome is clearly dictated by this Court's decision in South Bay United Pentecostal Church v. Newsom, 592 U. S. —— (2021). Should the petition for writ of certiorari be denied, this order shall terminate automatically. In the event the petition for writ of certiorari is granted, the order shall terminate upon the sending down of the judgment of this Court.

Justice Kagan, with whom Justice Breyer and Justice Sotomayor join, dissenting: I dissent for the reasons set out in South Bay United Pentecostal Church v. Newsom, 592 U. S. —— (2021) (Kagan, J., dissenting).

Orders in Pending Cases

No. 20A150. Texas, et al., Applicants v. Cook County, Illinois, et al. In 2019, the Department of Homeland Security promulgated through notice and comment a rule defining the term "public charge." The District Court in this case vacated the rule nationwide, but that judgment was stayed pending DHS's appeal to the United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit. On March 9, 2021, following the change in presidential administration, DHS voluntarily dismissed that appeal, thereby dissolving the stay of the District Court's judgment. And on March 15, DHS relied on the District Court's now-effective judgment to remove the challenged rule from the Code of Federal Regulations without going through notice and comment rulemaking. Shortly after DHS had voluntarily dismissed its appeal, a group of States sought leave to intervene in the Court of Appeals. When that request was denied, the States filed an application for leave to intervene in this Court and for a stay of the District Court's judgment. The States argue that DHS has prevented enforcement of the rule while insulating the District Court's judgment from review. The States also contend that DHS has rescinded the rule without following the requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act. We deny the application, without prejudice to the States raising these and other arguments before the District Court, whether in a motion for intervention or otherwise. After the District Court considers any such motion, the States may seek review, if necessary, in the Court of Appeals, and in a renewed application in this Court. Justice Barrett took no part in the consideration or decision of this application.

Opinions Per Curiam

No. 20–391. Jody Lombardo, et al., Petitioners v. City of St. Louis, Missouri, et al. On petition for writ of certiorari to the United States Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit. The Court expresses no view as to whether the officers used unconstitutionally excessive force or, if they did, whether Gilbert's right to be free of such force in these circumstances was clearly established at the time of his death. The Court instead grants the petition for certiorari, vacates the judgment of the United States Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit, and remands the case to give the court the opportunity to employ an inquiry that clearly attends to the facts and circumstances in answering those questions in the first instance. Opinion per curiam. Justice Alito, with whom Justice Thomas and Justice Gorsuch join, dissenting.

Order in Pending Case

No. 21–5592. John H. Ramirez, Petitioner v. Bryan Collier, Executive Director, Texas Department of Criminal Justice, et al. The parties are directed to submit briefs that address whether petitioner adequately exhausted his audible prayer claim under the Prison Litigation Reform Act, 42 U. S. C. § 1997e(a). The parties are also directed to address whether petitioner has satisfied his burden under the Religious Land Use and Institutionalized Persons Act of 2000 (RLUIPA) to demonstrate that a sincerely held religious belief has been substantially burdened by restrictions on either audible prayer or physical contact. The parties are further directed to address whether the government has satisfied its burden under RLUIPA to demonstrate its policy is the least restrictive means of advancing a compelling government interest. Finally, the parties are directed to address the type of equitable relief petitioner is seeking, the appropriate standard for this relief, and whether that standard has been met here. See Hill v. McDonough, 547 U. S. 573, 584 (2006) (setting forth a four-factor test for equitable relief). The parties may address other relevant issues, avoiding repetition of discussion in prior briefing.
