Statement Concerning the Agreement with Colombia regarding grants under the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961, as amended, or successor legislation, and the furnishing of defense articles, related training, and other defense services, including pursuant to the Global Peace Operations Initiative (GPOI) program from the United States of America to the Government of Colombia pursuant to the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961, or successor legislation. Effected by exchange of notes at Bogotá September 27 and December 27, 2010. Entered into force December 27, 2010.

RELEASE IN FULL

Explanation of Agreement:

This Agreement provides end-use, retransfer, and security assurances from Colombia for defense articles, related training and other defense services provided by the United States Government through the Global Peace Operations Initiative Program to the Government of Colombia. This Agreement supersedes the agreement between the Government of the United States of America and the Government of Colombia concerning payment to the United States of net proceeds from the sale of defense articles furnished on a grant basis, effected by exchange of notes at Bogotá August 10 and September 25, 1992.

Legal Authority:

Article II of the United States Constitution; Section 505 of the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961, as amended.
