Ref.: Access to the dataset "Returns to elite university education: a quasi-experimental analysis"

Dear Prof. Oosterveen,

Following your request, hereby Bocconi University declares its availability to give you access to the dataset "Returns to elite university education: a quasi-experimental analysis", developed by prof. Massimo Anelli, Assistant Professor at Bocconi University (hereinafter "Dataset"), as long as you undertake the following.

The access to the Dataset shall be granted exclusively for academic/scientific purposes, free of charge and with no time limit, without prejudice to any decision of the University to revoke this concession for any reason and at any moment, asking you the immediate termination of the use.

It is intended that the Dataset will be accessed and used exclusively within the European Union Area and will not be used for other purposes than those stated above, and will not be shared for any reason, not even partially, with third parties, nor will be used for any new research project unless a previous written authorization is released by Bocconi University.

The Dataset cannot be duplicated, modified, completely or in part, reproduced, translated, marketed, and the data contained in it will have to be used in aggregate and anonymized form.

Tools and measures taken to store the Dataset must be adequate so as to ensure the utmost data protection of the Dataset and to prevent data loss, data destruction, data theft, illegal or incorrect use, unauthorized access of the data. Morevoer, a restricted and personal access to the Dataset shall be guaranteed.

Without prejudice to prof. Massimo Anelli moral rights of the author, the Dataset is and will be an exclusive property of Bocconi University.

The present letter shall not be interpreted as a possible source for you of copyrights and/or as a grant of licenses or other rights of use on copyrights or any other industrial property rights and/or intellectual rights on the Dataset and /or on any changes, processing and/or products stemming from it.

The undersigned,

Roberto Grassi
Director, Academic Services

For acceptance and complete assumption of the above-mentioned obligation:

Prof. Matthijs Oosterveen
