Frisson

Please feel free to answer these questions as close as possible to your actual experience. All data collected in this study are anonymized, and there are no right or wrong answers.

In this study, we are curious about frisson. Frisson is the internal, spreading shivers people sometimes experience when watching a video, listening to music, or in social situations. Generally, they correspond to a sensation of feeling cold down your spine. Sometimes, frisson is accompanied by goosebumps. We use Chills and Frisson as synonyms.
