RELEASE IN FULL

Statement Regarding
Agreement between the United States and Australia
Concerning Defense Communications Services, with Annexes.
Signed at Washington Oct. 14 and 30, 1998.

This Agreement provides for the interconnection of the defense communications networks of the United States and Australia. This Agreement provides for the establishment, assignment, utilization, and the practice, procedures and payment for telecommunications services shared or provided between the United States Defense Information System Network (USDISN) and the Australian Defense Communications system (ASDCS).

This Agreement will be implemented by the Director, Defense Information System Agency for the United States and the Director General, Corporate Information Policy and Plans for Australia.
