News

30 JUNE 2018, 00:05 SOCIETY

LPR launches representaive office in Messina, Italy

LUGANSK, June 29 (Lugansk Media Centre) – LPR has launched its representative office in Italian Mesinna, the ceremony of opening was organized via Skype conference between the LPR and Italy.

The office is presided by the president of the Messina Per il Donbass organization, University Of Messina professor Daniel Makris.

The LPR acting Foreign Minister Vladislav Deinego said the Republic was grateful to Italy for support and assistance in overcoming informational blockade hampering people in Europe and all over the world to learn what is going on in Donbass.

"This is another step on the way to our recognition," he said.

LuganskMediaCentre — 30 June — Lugansk

Most popular

LPR, DPR and Crimea sign inter-parliamentary cooperation agreement

Security subgroup meeting in Minsk addresses demining issues

Kiev forces violate ceasefire twice over 24 hours

LPR Head's statement on military drills

LPR and DPR to carry out joint drills of Civil Defence

©2014.
Lugansk Media Centre

Contact the editors:
editor@lug-info.com

Contact the press-centre:
095 441 00 07 (MTS)

Select spelling error with your mouse and press Ctrl + Enter
Powered by Orphus