FILING AND PAYMENT RELIEF AVAILABLE FOR SOUTH CAROLINA TAXES

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE - 4/14/2020

In response to the expanded tax relief provided by the IRS, the South Carolina Department of Revenue (SCDOR) is providing additional tax filing and payment relief as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic.

“While collecting tax dollars and ensuring compliance is critical to the continued fiscal health of South Carolina, we are making every effort to support people and businesses during these uncertain times,” said SCDOR Director Hartley Powell.

For details about state tax relief, visit dor.sc.gov/emergencies and review Information Letter 20-8. For federal tax relief information, visit irs.gov/coronavirus.

Available state tax relief

- Income Tax, Franchise Tax, Estimated Tax, and Corporate License Fee filings and payments originally due between April 1 and July 15 are due July 15, 2020. Individuals, corporations, partnerships, banks, savings and loans, utilities, trusts and estates, and tax-exempt organizations qualify.
- All other state taxes administered by or tax returns filed with the SCDOR originally due April 1– June 1 are now due June 1, 2020.
- This filing and payment relief is applied to all other SCDOR taxes automatically; you do not need to file additional forms to qualify.

Available customer service

Due to COVID-19, phone assistance is temporarily limited, but other service options are readily available.
