SUPREME COURT OF NEW JERSEY

In response to the ongoing COVID-19 coronavirus pandemic and the need to adhere to crucial social distancing measures recommended by the New Jersey Department of Health ("NJ DOH") and the Centers for Disease Control ("CDC"), the Court has entered orders, including Orders dated March 17, 2020 and March 27, 2020 ("Omnibus Order"), that inter alia extended deadlines and tolled time periods.

This Order is to clarify that the Court's extension of deadlines and tolling of time periods as set forth in those earlier orders did not apply to pretrial detention filings, including appeals filed pursuant to Rule 2:9-13 ("Appeals from Orders Granting Pretrial Detention"), responses to those appeals, and motions for leave to appeal pursuant to Rule 2:5-6 ("Appeals from Interlocutory Orders, Decisions and Actions").

To the extent that a party may have interpreted the tolling provisions of prior orders otherwise, that party may pursue an appeal and submit an accompanying motion to file as within time.

For the Court,

Chief Justice
