SNAP Emergency Allotments Will Continue in November

Richmond, VA (November 5, 2020) – Virginia's Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) will again release emergency allotments of benefits to eligible households this month. Consistent with the emergency allotments provided during the months of March – October, benefits will be automatically loaded to recipients' Electronic Benefits Transfer (EBT) cards. Eligible recipients can expect to have benefits available on Monday, November 16.

The emergency allotments raise each household's monthly allotment to the maximum allowable based on household size as follows:

SUPPLEMENTAL NUTRITION ASSISTANCE PROGRAMS
