IN THE SUPREME COURT, STATE OF WYOMING

October Term, A.D. 2019

In the Matter of the Extension to May 31, 2020 of the Wyoming Supreme Court's Emergency Orders Regarding COVID-19 Pandemic	***)

ORDER EXTENDING COVID-19 EMERGENCY ORDERS TO MAY 31, 2020

This matter came before the Court on its own motion. The Wyoming Supreme Court entered its March 18, 2020 Order Adopting Temporary Plan to Address Health Risks Posed by the COVID-19 Pandemic; its March 20, 2020 Order Suspending Rules Requiring Paper Copies of Pleadings in the Supreme Court; and its March 26, 2020 COVID-19 Emergency Order Adopting Procedures for Remote Administration of Oaths and Witnesses, Verification of Guilty Pleas, and for Paper Filings. Now, in light of the nationwide and statewide continuation of public health restrictions to respond to the COVID19 pandemic, the Wyoming Supreme Court, under Article V, Section 2 of the Wyoming Constitution, in the exercise of its inherent powers, enters this Order to extend the duration of the three referenced Orders, which shall remain in effect until May 31, 2020.

DATED this 1st day of April, 2020.

BY THE COURT:

/s/

MICHAEL K. DAVIS
Chief Justice