Guidance on the Essential Critical Infrastructure Workforce: Ensuring Community and National Resilience in COVID-19 Response

Version 3.0 (April 17, 2020)

THE IMPORTANCE OF ESSENTIAL CRITICAL INFRASTRUCTURE WORKERS

Functioning critical infrastructure is imperative during the response to the COVID-19 emergency for both public health and safety as well as community well-being. Certain critical infrastructure industries have a special responsibility in these times to continue operations.

This advisory guidance and accompanying list are intended to support state, local, tribal, territorial and industry partners in identifying the critical infrastructure sectors and the essential workers needed to maintain the services and functions Americans depend on daily and that need to be able to operate resiliently during the COVID-19 pandemic response.

This document gives advisory guidance on defining essential critical infrastructure workers. Promoting the ability of such workers to continue to work during periods of community restriction, access management, social distancing, or closure orders/directives is crucial to community resilience and continuity of essential functions. The term "workers" as used in this guidance is intended to apply to both employees and contractors performing the described functions.

CISA will continually solicit and accept feedback on the list and will evolve the list in response to stakeholder feedback. We will also use our various stakeholder engagement mechanisms to work with partners on how they are using this list and share those lessons learned and best practices broadly. Feedback can be sent to CISA.CAT@CISA.DHS.GOV.

CONSIDERATIONS FOR GOVERNMENT AND BUSINESS

This list was developed in consultation with federal agency partners, industry experts, and State and local officials, and is based on several key principles:

1. Response efforts to the COVID-19 pandemic are locally executed, state managed, and federally supported.
2. Everyone should follow guidance from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), as well as state and local government officials, regarding strategies to limit disease spread.
3. Employers must comply with applicable Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) requirements for protecting critical infrastructure workers who remain on or return to the job during the COVID-19 pandemic. As the nation relies on these workers to protect public health, safety, and community well-being, they must be protected from exposure to and infection with the virus so that they can continue to carry out their responsibilities. OSHA has guidance and enforcement information for workplaces at www.osha.gov/coronavirus.

4. Businesses and government agencies may continue to implement organization-specific measures, which protect the workforce while meeting mission needs.
5. Workers should be encouraged to work remotely when possible and focus on core business activities. In-person, non-mandatory activities should be delayed until the resumption of normal operations.
6. When continuous remote work is not possible, businesses should enlist strategies to reduce the likelihood of spreading the disease. This includes, but is not limited to, physically separating staff, staggering work shift hours or days, and other social distancing measures. While the CDC recommends that everyone wear a cloth face cover to contain respiratory droplets when around others, critical infrastructure employers must consider how best to implement this public health recommendation for source control in the workplace. For example, employers may provide disposable facemasks (e.g., surgical masks) instead of cloth face coverings when workers would need to wear masks for extended periods of time (e.g., the duration of a work shift) or while performing tasks in which the face covering could become contaminated.
7. Consider the impact of workplace sick leave policies that may contribute to an employee decision to delay reporting medical symptoms. Sick employees should not return to the workplace until they meet the criteria to stop home isolation.
8. Critical infrastructure has an obligation to limit to the extent possible the reintegration of in-person workers who have experienced an exposure to COVID-19 but remain asymptomatic in ways that best protect the health of the worker, their co-workers, and the general public. An analysis of core job tasks and workforce availability at worksites can allow the employer to match core activities to other equally skilled and available in-person workers who have not experienced an exposure. CDC guidance on safety practices for critical infrastructure workers is maintained at https://www.cdc.gov/coronavirus/2019-ncov/community/critical-workers/implementing-safety-practices.html
9. All organizations should implement their business continuity and pandemic plans or put plans in place if they do not exist. Delaying implementation is not advised and puts at risk the viability of the business and the health and safety of the workers.
10. Reliance on technology and just-in-time supply chains means that certain workers must be able to access certain sites, facilities, and assets to ensure continuity of functions. The vast majority of our economy relies on technology and therefore information technology (IT) and operational technology (OT) workers for critical infrastructure operations are essential. This includes workers in many roles, including workers focusing on management systems, control systems, and Supervisory Control and Data Acquisition (SCADA) systems, and data centers; cybersecurity engineering; and cybersecurity risk management.
11. Government workers, such as emergency managers, and the business community need to establish and maintain lines of communication.
12. Essential critical infrastructure workers need continued and unimpeded access to sites, facilities, and equipment within quarantine zones, containment areas, or other areas where access or movement is limited to perform functions for community relief and stability; for public safety, security and health; for maintaining essential supply chains and preserving local, regional, and national economic well-being.
13. Essential critical infrastructure workers need sustained access to designated quarantine, containment, or restricted areas; and should be exempted from curfews, shelter-in-place orders, and transportation restrictions or restrictions on movement.

14. Whenever possible, local governments should consider adopting specific state guidance on essential workers to reduce potential complications of workers crossing jurisdictional boundaries. When this is not possible, local jurisdictions should consider aligning access and movement control policies with neighboring jurisdictions to reduce the burden of cross-jurisdictional movement of essential critical infrastructure workers.

Use of Cloth Face Coverings to Help Slow the Spread of COVID-19

EXHIBIT C

How to Wear Cloth Face Coverings

Cloth face coverings should—

- fit snugly but comfortably against the side of the face
- be secured with ties or ear loops
- include multiple layers of fabric
- allow for breathing without restriction
- be able to be laundered and machine dried without damage or change to shape

CDC on Homemade Cloth Face Coverings

CDC recommends wearing cloth face coverings in public settings where other social distancing measures are difficult to maintain (e.g., grocery stores and pharmacies), especially in areas of significant community-based transmission.

CDC also advises the use of simple cloth face coverings to slow the spread of the virus and help people who may have the virus and do not know it from transmitting it to others. Cloth face coverings fashioned from household items or made at home from common materials at low cost can be used as an additional, voluntary public health measure.

Cloth face coverings should not be placed on young children under age 2, anyone who has trouble breathing, or is unconscious, incapacitated or otherwise unable to remove the cloth face covering without assistance.

The cloth face coverings recommended are not surgical masks or N-95 respirators. Those are critical supplies that must continue to be reserved for healthcare workers and other medical first responders, as recommended by current CDC guidance.

Should cloth face coverings be washed or otherwise cleaned regularly? How regularly?

Yes. They should be routinely washed depending on the frequency of use.

How does one safely sterilize/clean a cloth face covering?

A washing machine should suffice in properly washing a cloth face covering.

How does one safely remove a used cloth face covering?

Individuals should be careful not to touch their eyes, nose, and mouth when removing their cloth face covering and wash hands immediately after removing.

Sunshine Law and UIPA

Chapter 92, HRS, Part I. Meetings, is suspended to the extent necessary to enable boards as defined in Section 92-2, to conduct meetings without any board members or members of the public physically present in the same location. The physical locations of the board members need not be listed on the agenda.

Boards are discouraged from meeting during the emergency disaster relief period and should only be meeting as necessary to comply with a law, operational necessity, or in furtherance of emergency responses to COVID-19.

If a board holds a meeting:

- Notice of meetings must be electronically posted and electronically provided to notification lists consistent with section 92-7; however, posting at the site of the meeting or at a centralized location in a public building is not required.

- Board packets, consistent with Section 92-7.5, must be electronically posted as soon as practicable under current conditions.

- Boards must accept written testimony from the public.

- Boards must comply with the requirements to keep and electronically post meeting minutes consistent with Section 92-9.

- The quorum requirements in Section 92-15 must be met for all meetings.

If a board has the staffing, technological and other resources to hold a secure video-teleconference (i.e., video and audio), it must in good faith attempt to provide the public with the opportunity to observe the meeting as it happens and an opportunity to provide oral testimony. No board action shall be invalid if the board's good faith efforts to implement remote technology for public observations and comments do not work.

If a board does not have the staffing, technological or other resources to hold a secure video-teleconference (i.e., it is limited to audio only), it must provide the public with the opportunity to listen to the teleconference as it happens and should make a good faith effort to provide the public with the opportunity to provide oral testimony.

Boards are encouraged to consider the following guidelines:

- Board members should be clearly visible and/or audible consistent with the remote technology used by the board.

- At the start of all meetings, the presiding officer should announce the names of the participating members.

- For audio-only teleconferencing, each speaker should repeat their name before making remarks.

- Votes should be conducted by roll call so that it is clear how each board member voted.

- To preserve the executive nature of any portion of a meeting closed to the public, the presiding officer should confirm with staff that no unauthorized person is present and has access to the executive session.

- When resources exist to readily do so, boards should record meetings and make the recordings electronically available to the public as soon as practicable after a meeting.

Notwithstanding the above, board meetings whose agendas have already been noticed as of the date of this Proclamation may proceed under the provisions of the Sixth Supplemental Emergency Proclamation.

Chapter 92F, HRS, uniform information practices act, and Chapters 71 and 73, Title 2 of the Hawaii Administrative Rules, are suspended to the extent they contain any deadlines for agencies, including deadlines for the OIP, relating to requests for government records and/or complaints to OIP. As resources permit, agencies are encouraged to respond to requests for government records (UIPA Requests). To balance the needs of the public with the resources available to government agencies during the COVID-19 crisis, agencies must comply with the following minimum requirements:

- Agencies must acknowledge receipt of UIPA Requests. If a request is not acknowledged, the requester may ask the Office of Information Practices to verify that the agency received the UIPA Request.

- Agencies must retain UIPA Requests and may not destroy requested records while a UIPA Request is pending.

- As resources permit, agencies shall in good faith:
    - respond to UIPA Requests for information that do not require redaction or substantial review of records without substantial delay; and
    - prioritize responding to UIPA Requests made in the public interest where the requestor has the primary intent and actual ability to widely disseminate the requested information to the general public.

- Requests for government records not answered during the emergency relief period must be answered in a reasonable period of time when the suspension of laws is lifted.

(2) No operator shall stop the flow of blood by using alum or other material unless applied in liquid form or in powdered form applied with a clean towel.

(3) No operator shall use razors, shears, scissors, clippers, tweezers, finger bowls, or combs, or any like article on any customer unless the item has been thoroughly cleaned and disinfected since last used. All such instruments shall be thoroughly cleaned and disinfected by a method recommended by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, the Environmental Protection Agency, and/or the Occupational Safety and Health Administration. After disinfecting, instruments shall be stored in a manner to prevent contamination, or be disinfected again immediately before re-use. All disinfectants shall be approved by the Environmental Protection Agency.

(4) No operator shall remove or attempt to remove any wart, mole, pimple, ingrown hair, or undertake any like treatment unless properly trained in medical science. Cleaning of ears is prohibited.

(11) No person shall commit any insanitary practice or act in a shop sink or wash basin, such as brushing teeth, expectorating, or gargling.

§5 COVID-19 infection mitigation and social distancing; preopening and ongoing safety protocol.

(a) Preopening safety protocols.

(1) Thoroughly clean and disinfect all fixtures, furnishings, equipment, doorways, work stations, and restrooms. Check and replace various filters such as heating, ventilation, air conditioning, and hair dryers. Disinfectants shall be EPA-registered and labeled as bactericidal, virucidal and fungicidal.

(2) Evaluate the layout and arrange seats at least six feet apart. Consider adding spacing between booths, shampoo sinks, divider shields, sneeze shields, and/or alternative work schedules to accomplish this. Consider using the front and rear doorways to establish one-way traffic through the shop. Remove items such as candy dishes, self-serve coffee, product samples, magazines, and paper reading products from the common area.

(3) Have hand sanitizer available for all employees and clients.

(4) Take inventory of personal protective equipment (PPE), cleaning products, and EPA-registered disinfecting products, and order supplies, if necessary.

(5) Establish new policies requiring employees to wear a face covering as described and recommended by the CDC at all times when in the shop, except while eating or drinking in a break room. Salons may consider providing face coverings to clients. Clients should wear a face covering as described and recommended by the CDC to the extent possible while receiving services.

(6) Establish new schedules of employees and appointment policies to minimize the risk of overcrowding inside the shop. There should be no more than ten people in the shop at any time including staff, provided the six-feet social distancing requirements are met. These policies shall be in writing and shall be posted to advise the public of the new policies.

(7) Shop owners shall provide training, educational materials, and reinforcement on proper sanitation, hand-washing, cough and sneeze etiquette, and shall ensure that breakrooms are thoroughly cleaned and sanitized and not used for congregating by employees.

(b) Ongoing Safety Considerations After Opening

(1) Consider seeing clients by appointment only. Limit the number of persons in the waiting area of the shop. It is recommended that clients wait outside the shop until the operator is ready to serve them.

(2) The use of a face covering as described and recommended by the CDC is mandatory for all employees at all times while in the shop. Placing a clean towel over the face of the client while at the sink is a good way to protect their mouth, nose and eyes. Minimize to the greatest degree possible, up-close, direct face-to-face contact with clients.

(3) Before and after each client, require staff to wash hands with soap and water for at least 20 seconds; properly clean and disinfect all workstations, shampoo, manicure and pedicure bowls, implements, and tools; ensure single use and porous items, such as disposable capes or cardboard nail files, are new; and follow manufacturer’s requirements for product use, formulations, and/or disposal. Consider placing paper drapes or laundered towels on chairs.

(4) Employees should frequently wash their hands after using the phones, computer, cash register or credit card machine. Wipe all surfaces between each use.

(5) Advise employees and clients to stay at home if they are not feeling well. Consider pre-screening clients and ask if they have traveled outside the county or experienced any COVID-19 symptoms in the past 14 days. Decline services for any client that answers yes.

(6) Discontinue the practice of physical social greetings, such as hugs or handshakes.

(c) Any Operator who contracts COVID-19 or any other contagious or infectious disease in a communicable form shall not attend any person in any shop, nor shall any person afflicted with such disease in communicable form receive any treatment in any such establishment. Any operator afflicted with any such disease shall return to work in a shop only upon a written statement from a physician that it is safe for him or her to return to work.

§6 Closures. Upon inspection, if any shop is found in violation of these rules, it may be closed immediately by public health officials or by the Department.
