STATE OF WEST VIRGINIA

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

At Charleston

EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 73-20

By the Governor

WHEREAS, a State of Emergency was declared on the Sixteenth Day of March, Two Thousand Twenty for all counties in West Virginia (the "State of Emergency"), to allow agencies to coordinate and create necessary measures to prepare for and respond to the outbreak of respiratory disease caused by a novel coronavirus now known as COVID-19; and

WHEREAS, Chapter 15, Article 5, Section 6 of the Code of West Virginia authorizes the Governor to, among other things, suspend the provisions of any regulatory statute prescribing the procedures for conduct of state business or the orders, rules of any state agency, if strict compliance therewith would in any way prevent, hinder, or delay necessary action in coping with the emergency; and

WHEREAS, Executive Orders 4-20, 7-20, 10-20, 11-20, 12-20, 17-20, 23-20, 26-20, 31-20, 46-20, 54-20, 57-20, 59-20, 63-20, 66-20, 67-20, 69-20, and 72-20 suspended certain provisions and sections of statute that strict compliance therewith would prevent, hinder, or delay necessary action in coping with the emergency; and

WHEREAS, there has been an additional statutory regulations identified by the West Virginia State Auditor's Office that is preventing the state from best coping with the emergency and assisting the citizens of West Virginia; and

NOW, THEREFORE, I, JIM JUSTICE, pursuant to the authority vested in me pursuant to the provision of Chapter 15, Article 5, Section 6 of the Code of West Virginia, hereby DECLARE and ORDER that, the following statutory regulation is to be suspended for the duration of the State of Emergency for the sole purpose of removing the technical requirement that public auctions for lands which are delinquent for the nonpayment of taxes be held "at the front door of the courthouse of the county" in which the property being auctioned sits, in order that such public auctions may take place in locations where adequate social distancing may be maintained by any desiring to attend such public auctions:

1. In the discretion of the West Virginia State Auditor's Office which may issue additional guidance from time to time, the requirement that a public auction for lands which are delinquent for the nonpayment of taxes be noticed to be held "at the front door of the courthouse of the county" in which the property being auctioned sits (W. Va. Code § 11A-3-2(a)).
