Pennsylvania Supreme Court Cancels April Session

HARRISBURG – Amid continued COVID-19 mitigation efforts, the Pennsylvania Supreme Court today canceled the upcoming oral argument session scheduled in Pittsburgh from April 21 through 23.

Cases scheduled for argument during that session will be decided on briefs previously submitted.

The announcement from the court comes during a statewide court closure and judicial emergency, as directed by the Supreme Court's Order of March 18.

Additional information about the impact of COVID-19 on court operations is available online, at @pennsylvaniacourts and @PACourts.
