The State of Florida Issues COVID-19 Updates 04/15/20

The State of Florida is responding to COVID-19. In an effort to keep Florida residents and visitors safe and aware regarding the status of the virus, the Florida Department of Health will issue this update every day, seven days per week.

Governor Ron DeSantis is in constant communication with Florida Division of Emergency Management Director Jared Moskowitz and State Surgeon General Dr. Scott Rivkees as the State of Florida continues to monitor and respond to the threat of COVID-19.

Today, Governor DeSantis announced he will form a taskforce to help with the resurgence and reopening of Florida after COVID-19. The task force will recommend the most prudent way to safely re-open Florida's economy in a phased-in approach. The task force will also place a significant emphasis on small business.

Additionally, Governor DeSantis announced that Florida will receive $173.6 million of federal funding for education through the CARES Act.

Governor DeSantis also directed Department of Management Services Secretary Jonathan Satter to take lead on the COVID-19 response at the Department of Economic Opportunity. As head of the Department of Management Services, which oversees the division of state technology, Secretary Satter has the knowledge and resources to address the complex technological challenges facing our state's reemployment system.

Recent actions the state has taken to respond to COVID-19:

- Florida has now tested more than 211,000 individuals for COVID-19.
- As of April 15, approximately 2,277 Florida National Guardsmen are currently deployed to support Florida's response to COVID-19.
- The Florida National Guard (FLNG) continues to support the state's COVID-19 response through operational support of Community Based Testing Sites (CBTS), augmentation to airport screening measures, statewide logistics support, coordination, planning and operational mission sets. To date, the FLNG has assisted in the testing of over 44,850 individuals for the COVID-19 virus.
