108 Parole Hearings Cancelled for Week of March 30, 2020

The Alabama Bureau of Pardons and Paroles has cancelled 108 parole hearings that had been scheduled for the week of March 30, 2020 because of the spread of the coronavirus. The hearings will be rescheduled as soon as possible.

Parole hearings are held in Montgomery by the Alabama Board of Pardons and Paroles and are attended by many family members, friends and representatives of inmates and crime victims from all over the state. Inmates do not attend the hearings.

Editor's Note: The list below contains the list of cancelled hearings for March 31- April 2. The list includes the names of the inmates who were to be considered for parole, their county or counties of conviction, and information on whether the inmates have any convictions for violent offenses on their records. News organizations can go to the Alabama Department of Corrections inmate database http://www.doc.state.al.us/InmateSearch and search by the AIS number listed below for details on the inmates' records of offenses.
