IN THE SUPREME COURT, STATE OF WYOMING

April Term, A.D. 2020

In the Matter of the Extension to December 15, 2020 of the Wyoming Supreme Court's Emergency Orders Regarding COVID-19 Pandemic	***)

ORDER EXTENDING COVID-19 EMERGENCY ORDER ADOPTING PROCEDURES FOR REMOTE ADMINISTRATION OF OATHS AND WITNESSES, VERIFICATION OF GUILTY PLEAS, AND FOR PAPER FILINGS TO DECEMBER 15, 2020

This matter came before the Court on its own motion. The Wyoming Supreme Court entered its March 26, 2020 COVID-19 Emergency Order Adopting Procedures for Remote Administration of Oaths and Witnesses, Verification of Guilty Pleas, and for Paper Filings. It extended those Orders in response to continuing demands. Now, in light of the nationwide and statewide continuation of public health restrictions to respond to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Wyoming Supreme Court, under Article V, Section 2 of the Wyoming Constitution, in the exercise of its inherent powers, enters this Order to extend the duration of the March 26, 2020 Order, which shall remain in effect until December 15, 2020.

The March 20, 2020 Order Suspending Rules Requiring Paper Copies of Pleadings in the Supreme Court shall not be extended and expires October 5, 2020.

DATED this 22nd day of September, 2020.
