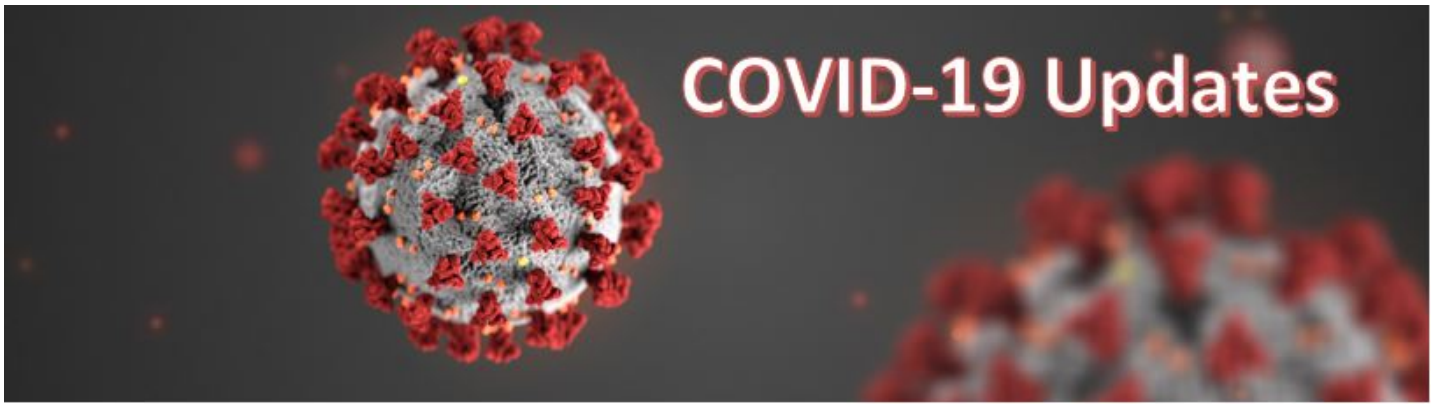
The mission of the Connecticut Judicial Branch is to serve the interests of justice and the public by resolving matters brought before it in a fair, timely, efficient and open manner.



Archived COVID-19 Website Notices By Topic

Matters Being Heards (archived notices)
Facilities (archived notices)
General (archived notices)
Supreme and Appellate Court (archived notices)
Civil Matters (archived notices)
Family Matters (archived notices)
Criminal Matters (archived notices)

Matters Being Heard (archived notices)

February 1, 2020: Jurors scheduled to appear in a Connecticut courthouse from now until April 30, 2021, should not report. Their jury service has been cancelled.

- Notwithstanding the fact that our jury system still sends out jury summonses, all jury service is suspended until April 30, 2021. If you have been summoned for jury service, please be advised that your service has been cancelled and that you should not report.

August 28, 2020: Connecticut Judicial Branch Continues to Expand Court Operations

July 29, 2020: The Judicial Branch is Expanding its Remote Capabilities

June 17, 2020: The Judicial Branch is Expanding its Remote Capabilities