IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF NEVADA

IN RE CORONAVIRUS PUBLIC EMERGENCY ORDER CONCERNING ACCESS TO APPELLATE COURT FACILITIES

AO-0014

FILED

APR 20 2020

ELIZABETH A. BROWN
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY CHIEF DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER CONCERNING ACCESS TO APPELLATE COURT FACILITIES

On March 13, 2020, this court issued AO-0008, restricting access to appellate court facilities due to the COVID-19 pandemic. This order extends the restrictions imposed by AO-0008. Consistent with the guidelines issued by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, and in order to protect public and employee health and safety, it is hereby ORDERED as follows:

The following persons shall not enter the appellate courthouses in Carson City and Las Vegas:

- Persons who in the last 14 days have traveled outside the United States;
- Persons who reside or have close contact with someone who has traveled outside the United States within the last 14 days;
- Persons who have been asked to self-quarantine by any doctor, hospital, or health agency;
- Persons who have been diagnosed with coronavirus or who have had contact in the past 14 days with anyone who has been diagnosed with COVID-19;
- Persons with unexplained fever, cough, or shortness of breath; or
- Persons without a need to enter the facility on essential court-related business.

20-14950

Tours of the appellate courthouses will remain suspended until further notice. The courthouses remain open for essential court business, such as filings that cannot be made electronically, mail delivery, and such in-person appearances of counsel, if any, the appellate court may direct in a particular case.

Anyone attempting to enter in violation of these protocols will be denied entry by the Marshal.

If you have business or a scheduled appearance at one of the appellate courthouses, and you are unable to enter because of the restrictions listed above, you should proceed as follows:

- If you are represented by an attorney, please contact your attorney.
- If you are a member of the public and want to listen to oral argument or participate in a public hearing, please be advised that the court webcasts all arguments and hearings. The link is available at http://nvcourts.gov/Supreme/. The Clerk of the Court accepts written comments on Administrative Docket hearings, with links available on the public website.
- For more information, please visit https://nvcourts.gov/Supreme/ or call the Clerk of the Court at (775) 684-1600 or (702) 486-9300.

These restrictions will remain in place until it is safe to remove them. People who think they may have been exposed to the coronavirus should contact their healthcare provider immediately.

Dated this 20th day of April, 2020.

Kristina Pickering

Chief Justice Kristina Pickering

cc: Administrative Office of the Courts

NEVADA APPELLATE COURTS

PUBLIC NOTICE

Visitor Restrictions

The Centers for Disease Control (CDC) has advised people to take precautions in light of the coronavirus outbreak and that the best way to prevent illness is to avoid being exposed to the virus.

To minimize exposure to COVID-19 and avoid disruption to critical court functions, the Nevada Supreme Court and Court of Appeals have imposed visitor restrictions on its courthouses in Carson City and Las Vegas.

Effective immediately, the following persons shall not enter the appellate courthouses in Carson City and Las Vegas:

- Persons who in the last 14 days have traveled outside the United States;
- Persons who reside or have close contact with someone who has traveled outside the United States within the last 14 days;
- Persons who have been asked to self-quarantine by any doctor, hospital, or health agency;
- Persons who have been diagnosed with coronavirus or who have had contact in the past 14 days with anyone who has been diagnosed with COVID-19; or
- Persons with unexplained fever, cough, or shortness of breath.
- Persons without a need to enter the facility on essential court-related business.

Tours of the appellate courthouses will remain suspended until further notice. The courthouses remain open for essential court business, such as filings that cannot be made electronically, mail delivery, and such in-person appearances of counsel, if any, the appellate court may direct for oral argument in a particular case.

Anyone attempting to enter in violation of these protocols will be denied entry by the Marshal.

If you have a business or a scheduled appearance at one of the appellate courthouses, and you are unable to appear because of the restrictions listed above, you should proceed as follows:

- If you are represented by an attorney, please contact your attorney;

- If you are a member of the public and want to listen to oral argument or participate in a public hearing, please be advised that the court webcasts all arguments and hearings. The link is available at http://nvcourts.gov/Supreme/. The Clerk of Court accepts written comments on Administrative Docket hearings, with links available on the public website.

- For more information, please visit https://nvcourts.gov/Supreme/ or call the Clerk of the Court at (775) 684-1600 or (702) 486-9300.

These restrictions will remain in place until it is determined to be safe to remove them. People who think they may have been exposed to the coronavirus should contact their healthcare provider immediately.

April 20, 2020

Kristina Pickering

Chief Justice Kristina Pickering
Nevada Supreme Court