NOTICE

To: All Producers Licensed to Sell Insurance in the State of Nebraska

From: Bruce R. Ramge, Director of Insurance

Date: March 31, 2020

RE: Temporary Nebraska Resident Producer License

Effective today, the Nebraska Department of Insurance will begin issuing temporary resident producer licenses. Applications and the supplemental form must be completed in paper format and mailed to the Department along with the appropriate fee.

Temporary Nebraska Resident Producer Licenses

- Temporary resident producer license is valid for 90 days;
- Applicant must submit a resident producer license application and $50.00 fee; and
- Applicant must complete the attached supplemental form, also found in the producer license application link above.

All temporary licenses will expire in 90 days. Any producer who completes the appropriate exam (if available) within the 90 days will have his/her license type changed from a temporary to regular license without new application or fees. After 90 days, if the applicant has not taken an exam, the temporary license will expire, and the individual will need to reapply and meet the regular requirements.

The issuance of new temporary licenses will discontinue at such time as Prometric testing becomes available.

All questions regarding this notice may be directed to Kevin Schlautman, Producer Licensing Administrator, at kevin.schlautman@nebraska.gov.
