COVID-19 Special Enrollment Period Extended to August 15, 2021

Congress recently increased the amount of premium tax credits available for people who wish to purchase individual health insurance through healthcare.gov. If your income was too high to qualify for a subsidy the last time you checked, you may find a different result on healthcare.gov beginning April 1, 2021.

Details about the increase in premium subsidies and how to enroll are available at https://www.cms.gov/newsroom/fact-sheets/extended-access-opportunity-enroll-more-affordable-coverage-through-healthcaregov
