Governor Ron DeSantis Announces Additional COVID-19 Vaccination Sites at Publix Super Markets

On January 13, 2021, in News Releases, Recent Appointments, by Staff

Naples, Fla. — Today, Governor Ron DeSantis announced the expansion of the state's partnership with Publix to establish COVID-19 vaccination sites at select Publix locations in Florida. The Governor announced the expansion of this partnership at Publix Super Markets in Ponte Vedra Beach and Naples.

New vaccination sites will be established at 40 select Publix locations throughout three counties in Northeast Florida: four in Flagler County, 22 in Volusia and 14 in St. Johns County.

Additionally, new vaccination sites will be established at 16 select Publix locations in Collier County in Southwest Florida.

On Tuesday, Governor DeSantis announced 26 new vaccination sites across five counties in Northwest Florida. More information on that announcement can be found HERE.

In total, Florida has partnered with Publix to open 105 vaccination sites in select locations in Florida. For a list of all vaccination sites at Publix locations, click HERE.

All vaccinations by Publix at their select locations are by appointment only. Qualified individuals can make an appointment by visiting www.publix.com/covidvaccine.
