Governor Cuomo Announces Capital Region Cleared by Global Public Health Experts to Enter Phase 4 of Reopening Tomorrow

CORONAVIRUS (/KI HEALTH)RC(NK PUBLIC SAFETY (/KEYWORDS/PUBLIC-SAFETY)

"The team of global public health experts advising New York State on its reopening strategy has thoroughly reviewed the data for the Capital Region and has cleared it to enter Phase 4 of reopening starting tomorrow, July 1.

"New Yorkers have shown tremendous bravery and discipline throughout this incredibly difficult time, and thanks to their efforts, we've bent the curve. However, it's essential that we remain diligent as we reopen safely and incrementally. I urge New Yorkers in every region to closely follow the state's guidance on reopening and take all the proper precautions to protect their communities and prevent a resurgence of COVID-19."
