Re: 60-Day Driver License/ID Extension – Revised September 10, 2020

To: Eligible Nevada Residents

Due to continued restrictions on Department of Motor Vehicles services resulting from the COVID-19 pandemic, the DMV has issued an automatic extension of certain DMV documents that have an expiration date of March 12 through November 12, 2020.

The automatic extension applies specifically to any non-commercial driver's license, non-commercial instruction permit, driver authorization card or identification card.

The extension begins on the date of expiration listed on your license or ID and runs through November 12, 2020.

You should carry this letter with your expired non-commercial driver's license, non-commercial instruction permit, driver authorization card or identification card at all times as proof of eligibility for the automatic extension.

This extension does not apply to a commercial driver's license or learner's permit, vehicle registration or any other DMV document.

Please visit the DMV website at dmvnv.com for updated information.
