Information Regarding Coronavirus Relief Funding Available For Community Providers For COVID-Eligible Expenses

The Department of Human Services will use federal Coronavirus Relief Fund resources to help providers of home health, developmental disability and homeless services to remain open and accessible during the pandemic by reimbursing for the added costs they are incurring due to COVID-19 for essentials such as PPE and enhanced cleaning.

Eligible entities include:

- Licensed developmental disability and traumatic brain injury group homes;
- Developmental disability facility-based day programs;
- Homeless shelters that accept reimbursement from Human Services' Division of Family Development; and
- Personal care assistance agencies that participate in New Jersey's Medicaid program and provided Medicaid services during calendar year 2020.

Documents are due November 13. For details and to learn more see:
