Order Modifying Deadlines for Annual Attorney Registration and Fee and Related Late Fee

As a result of the COVID-19 pandemic, the deadline for 2019-2020 Supreme Court Rule 208 attorney registration and payment of the annual registration fee is hereby modified to September 30, 2020.

Payment of the annual registration fee will be considered timely if submitted electronically no later than September 30, 2020, or received by the office of Attorney Registration no later than September 30, 2020. Annual registration fees received after that date will be considered delinquent and must be accompanied by a $100 late fee.

Members of the bar of Kansas are reminded that an attorney who fails to register and pay the annual registration fee and any applicable late fee may be administratively suspended from the practice of law under Rule 208(e).

Dated this 8th day of April 2020.
