EXECUTIVE ORDER

Extending Executive Orders D 2020 223 and D 2020 227 Limiting Certain Evictions to Provide Relief to Coloradans Affected by COVID-19

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Governor of the State of Colorado and, in particular, pursuant to Article IV, Section 2, of the Colorado Constitution and the relevant portions of the Colorado Disaster Emergency Act, C.R.S. § 24-33.5-701, et seq., I, Jared Polis, Governor of the State of Colorado, issue this Executive Order extending Executive Orders D 2020 223 and D 2020 227 which provide assistance to residential and commercial tenants at risk for eviction who were economically harmed by coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19) in Colorado.

I. Background and Purpose

On March 5, 2020, the Colorado Department of Public Health and Environment's (CDPHE) public health laboratory confirmed the first presumptive positive COVID-19 test result in Colorado. Since then, the number of confirmed cases has continued to climb, and we have evidence of community spread throughout the State. I verbally declared a disaster emergency on March 10, 2020, and on March 11, 2020, I issued the corresponding Executive Order D 2020 003, as amended by Executive Orders D 2020 018, D 2020 032, D 2020 058, D 2020 076, D 2020 109, D 2020 125, D 2020 152, D 2020 176, D 2020 205, and D 2020 234. On March 25, 2020, I requested that the President of the United States declare a Major Disaster for the State of Colorado, pursuant to the Stafford Act. The President approved that request on March 28, 2020.

My administration, along with other State, local, and federal authorities, has taken a wide array of actions to mitigate the effects of the pandemic, prevent further spread, and protect against overwhelming our health care resources.

The virus that causes COVID-19 is spread primarily by close contact between people and through respiratory droplets when an infected person coughs or sneezes. It can also be spread through contact with contaminated surfaces. Public health experts recommend we practice social distancing, or maintaining a physical distance of six (6) feet or more from other people, as a way to slow the spread of COVID-19. Keeping people housed can help limit the spread of COVID-19 during a public health disaster.

The economic impacts of COVID-19 are significant, and threaten to undermine the economic stability of many Coloradans and local businesses. The risk of contamination posed by COVID-19 necessitated closure of multiple businesses. Employers and employees in virtually all sectors of the economy have been hit the hardest. We must take action to shore up economic security, employment, community cohesion, and community recovery.

Transmission of the virus continues to threaten Coloradans' way of life and livelihoods. On April 26, 2020, I issued Executive Order D 2020 044 Safer at Home, as amended and extended by Executive Order D 2020 079. On July 1, 2020, I issued Executive Order D 2020 091 Safer at Home and in the Vast, Great Outdoors, as amended and extended by Executive Orders D 2020 091, D 2020 123, D 2020 142, D 2020 144, D 2020 170, and D 2020 199. To be Safer at Home, Coloradans impacted financially by COVID-19 must continue to have a home.

On October 30, 2020, I issued Executive Order D 2020 235 Establishing Directives for the COVID-19 Dial Framework. We are doing everything we can to get Coloradans back to work but this process is gradual and must take into account the evolving public health conditions. Many Coloradans continue to experience substantial loss of income as a result of business closures and layoffs, hindering their ability to keep up with their residential and nonresidential rent payments through no fault of their own.

I have already taken steps to keep Coloradans housed. On June 13, 2020, I issued Executive Order D 2020 101, which provided tenants with thirty (30) days to make rental payments before facing eviction and instructed the Department of Local Affairs (DOLA) to create a model rental repayment agreement to assist individuals who were facing financial hardship due to COVID-19. On July 12, 2020, I issued Executive Order D 2020 134, which extended the provisions of Executive Order D 2020 101 and encouraged municipalities to eliminate housing-related restrictions to provide more access to housing. On August 10, 2020, I issued Executive Order D 2020 162, which extended the provisions of Executive Orders D 2020 101 and D 2020 134. On September 8, 2020, I issued Executive Order D 2020 185, which extended the provisions of Executive Orders D 2020 101, D 2020 134, and D 2020 162. On September 22, 2020, I issued Executive Order D 2020 202, which extended the provisions of Executive Orders D 2020 101, D 2020 134, D 2020 162, and D 2020 185, and required landlords to provide notice of the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC)'s Temporary Halt in Residential Evictions To Prevent the Further Spread of COVID-19.

Additionally, on August 26, 2020, I signed Executive Order B 2020 006 creating the Special Eviction Prevention Task Force (Task Force). This temporary Task Force was directed to consider causes of and propose solutions to housing instability arising from the impact of COVID-19. The Task Force created recommendations on how to address housing instability due to COVID-19 in Colorado and presented these recommendations to me on October 9, 2020.

On October 15, 2020, I issued Executive Order D 2020 223 which built on the actions my administration has already taken and implemented recommendations from the Task Force ensuring Coloradans have stable housing during this public health emergency. On October 21, 2020, I issued Executive Order D 2020 227 amending and extending Executive Order D 2020 223, to reaffirm and clarify the CDC's national eviction moratorium and to protect residential and commercial tenants at risk for eviction who were economically harmed by COVID-19. We must take steps to provide relief to Colorado renters and small businesses.

This Executive Order extends Executive Order D 2020 223, as amended and extended by Executive Order D 2020 227, for an additional thirty (30) days.

II. Duration

Executive Order D 2020 223, as amended and extended by Executive Order D 2020 227 and as extended by this Executive Order, shall expire thirty (30) days from November 19, 2020, unless extended further by Executive Order. In all other respects, Executive Order D 2020 223, as amended and extended by Executive Order D 2020 227, shall remain in full force and effect as originally promulgated.

GIVEN under my hand and the Executive Seal of the State of Colorado, this nineteenth day of November, 2020.
