NOTICE

ELECTION DAY COURT HEARINGS FOR THE NOVEMBER 3, 2020 GENERAL ELECTION – STATEWIDE PROCEDURES AND PROTOCOLS; COUNTY-SPECIFIC LOGISTICAL DETAILS

1. Election Day court hearings for the Tuesday, November 3, 2020 General Election will be conducted following a "remote first" model consistent with all court operations at this time.

2. All COVID-19 health protocols will be implemented in all court locations being used for election hearings and will be supported to the extent possible in non-court locations being used for election hearing purposes, including Boards of Elections and other County facilities. Those COVID-19 protocols include screening operations, requiring the wearing of face masks, social distancing, and use of plexiglass or other barriers, depending on the specific local logistics.

3. Though courthouses are generally closed to the public on Election Day, either (a) the courthouse will be open to any voter who appears in person on an election challenge; or (b) county personnel will be prepared to direct a voter who appears at the courthouse to the appropriate location to participate in a remote proceeding.

4. Virtual participation in election hearings may be accommodated from voting locations (Board of Elections, etc.) and/or in the courthouse (including in designated technology areas) and/or through personal technology, in accordance with county-specific procedures.

5. Consistent with pre-COVID-19 policies and procedures, Election Day hearings are not live broadcast. Individual requests to observe specific remote Election Day events should be directed to the Trial Court Administrator.

6. Detailed guidance for each county is set forth in the below county-specific notices.

Hon. Glenn A. Grant, J.A.D.
Acting Administrative Director of the Courts

Dated: October 21, 2020

Atlantic County

Superior Court judges will be available in Atlantic County to conduct hearings for election challenges or issues on Tuesday, November 3.

Anyone seeking to petition the court on a voting or election issue on the date of the election may contact the Atlantic County Courts at (609) 402-0100 Ext. 47594 or by email at ATLCIVILADMIN.Mailbox@njcourts.gov .
