Administrative Order

2020-RL-033

Order Modifying Continuing Legal Education (CLE) Attendance and Reporting Deadlines and Waiving Limitation on Prerecorded Programming

The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention and the Governor have determined that social distancing is necessary to minimize further spread of the COVID-19 virus. In-person gatherings for continuing legal education will therefore not be permitted for the immediate future. It remains important, however, for members of the bar of Kansas to continue their professional development, and they can do so through distance learning options.

The following Supreme Court Rules are modified as follows for the 2019-2020 compliance period:

- Rules 801(d); 803. The CLE compliance period from July 1, 2019, to June 30, 2020, remains in place. Any attorney not able to meet the CLE credit hours requirement during the compliance period will be automatically granted an extension to September 30, 2020, to meet the CLE credit hours requirement.

- Rule 807(c). All credit hours for the 2019-2020 compliance period must be completed and reported no later than September 30, 2020. If credit hours are not completed and reported by September 30, 2020, attorneys must pay the $75 late filing fee required by Rule 807(c).

- Rule 806(j). The credit hour limitation on prerecorded programming is waived for the 2019-2020 compliance period. Prerecorded programs must still meet the guidelines required for accreditation. Effective from the date of this order through September 30, 2020, provider applications for prerecorded programming of more than 6 hours will be considered. Provider applications for prerecorded programming of more than 6 hours submitted before the effective date of this order will not be reconsidered for additional credit hours.

- Rule 807(a) and (b). Notice of the Annual Report and Failure to Comply will be issued in October 2020.

Dated this 8th day of April 2020.
