CPS Replication Files, "State Repression and Opposition Survival in Pinochet's Chile"
January 2023

This dataset contains the individuals who were on at least one of the target lists AND captured and subsequently disappeared (detenido desaparecido) or executed for political reasons (ejecutado politico) during the Pinochet dictatorship in Chile according to the 1991 National Commission for Truth and Reconciliation (Comisión Nacional de Verdad y Reconciliación), also known as the Rettig Commission.

The author constructed this dataset using two main resources. The first is the 450-page appendix of Manuel Contreras Sepúlveda's book "The Historic Truth: The Guerrilla Army" (Ediciones Encina, 2000), which contain the targets of the Pinochet dictatorship. The second is with the data and archives from the first Chilean truth commission. The commission report, data, and archives are partly accessible on the Memoria Viva site (https://memoriaviva.com/nuevaweb/), on the Museum of Memory and Human Rights website (https://interactivos.museodelamemoria.cl/victimas/), and in person at the Museum's Documentation Center (Centro de Documentación or CEDOC) in Santiago, Chile.
