IN REMOVAL PROCEEDINGS

APPEAL

ON BEHALF OF RESPONDENT: Land Wayland, Esquire

ON BEHALF OF DHS: Tracy Nguyen
Assistant Chief Counsel

On (b) (6) the United States Court of Appeals for the (b)(6) remanded this case to the Board in order to further address the respondent's claim for withholding of removal. The record will be remanded to the Immigration Judge for further proceedings.

The Circuit Court determined that neither the Board nor the Immigration Judge decided whether the respondent's testimony, if believed, established past persecution. The Circuit Court directed that the respondent's testimony should be deemed credible and further indicated that they were not remanding on the question of changed country conditions. The Department of Homeland Security moves the Board to remand this case to the Immigration Judge for the sole purpose of re-examining the respondent's application for withholding of removal.

In view of the above, we will remand the record for further proceedings.

ORDER: The record is remanded to the Immigration Judge for additional proceedings consistent with the court's order and this decision.
