Final composition of the sample

The final composition of the sample consisted of n=470 subjects: 202 women (42.98%), 263 men (55.96%), and 5 (1.06%) others. In terms of age, there is a fairly even distribution across the nine age groups covered in the study. A total of 123 reside in Germany (26.18%), 116 in France (24.68%), 86 in Italy (18.31%), 85 in Spain (18.06%), and 60 in Poland (12.77%). Regarding socioeconomic status, 31 indicate lower (6.59%), 128 lower-middle (27.24%), 210 middle (44.68%), 87 middle-upper (18.51%), and 14 upper (2.98%). 89 are unemployed (18.94%), 192 are students (40.85%), 145 are employed (30.85%), and 44 are both students and employed (9.36%). Finally, in terms of education, 74 have primary education (15.74%), 281 have secondary education (59.79%), and 115 have tertiary education (24.47%).