KATHMANDU: The government on Monday endorsed the Copenhagen accord on climate change and sent the letter to the secretariat of the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate change (UNFCCC), said the Ministry of Environment in a press statement.

After consultation Prime Minister Madhav Kumar Nepal and the stakeholders, the Ministry of Environment today sent the acceptance letter to the UN climate change body, formally initiating the legalization of the accord.

“We decided to accept the Copenhagen accord but still we have some reservations as consistently raised by the Least Developed Countries (LDC) group,” said Thakur Prasad Sharma, the environment minister.

“The negotiation is a continuous process and we will try to negotiate to bring the benefits as far as possible in discussion later this year,” said Purusottam Ghimire, the Joint Secretary at the Ministry of Environment, adding “
The negotiation is such a matter the country has go for it diplomatically.”

The Copenhagen accord had the deadline of January 31 for submitting national instance on it. “We are in time and we did it with rigorous consultations,” added Ghimire.
